ORDER DENYING MOTION

This case is pending before the National Labor Relations Board on exceptions to an administrative law judge's decision. On January 10, 2007, the Board issued a Notice of Oral Argument and Invitation to File Briefs.¹ The notice set a date for oral argument and set forth a list of questions to which the Board was interested in obtaining answers. The notice invited the parties and interested amici to file briefs addressing those questions and/or other relevant matters.

On January 19, 2007, the Charging Party filed a Motion for Reconsideration of the Notice of Oral Argument and Invitation to File Briefs. The Charging Party requests that the Board withdraw the notice and issue a revised notice eliminating certain of the listed questions.

¹ The Board's notice is dated January 10, 2006. This inadvertent error is hereby corrected.

The Board having duly considered the matter,

IT IS ORDERED that the Charging Party's Motion for Reconsideration is denied. The parties and amici are free to raise these arguments in briefs or at oral argument.

Dated, Washington, D.C. January 24, 2007

By direction of the Board:

Lester A. Heltzer

Executive Secretary
